

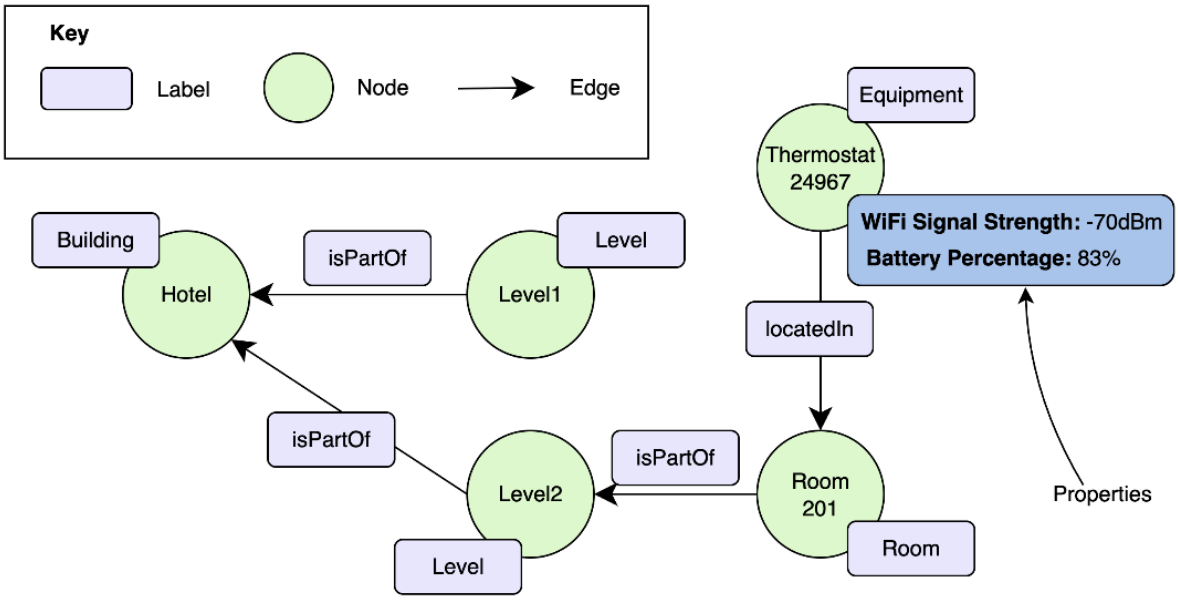

Figure 5.7 An example of a knowledge graph represented as a labeled property graph showing labels on both nodes and edges, and key, value pair properties against a node. This fragment represents a thermostat located in a room on the second floor of a hotel.