- The `--plan` flag of the `migrate` management command prints out what migrations need to be run.
- The `showmigrations` management command prints out the current state of all migrations in the system, indicating both those migrations that have been run and those that need to be run.